As we read the gospel according to John, we come across eight different discourses in which Jesus makes very definite, comprehensive, laudable statements about Himself. Jesus does not just claim to know these things, or explain these things. He knowingly claims that He is these things. These are true and the effect or influence is wonderful. The profound consequences touch our real, daily lives. The impression embraces a life-changing transformation with everlasting result.

“I am the bread of life” (John 6:35, 48).

“I am the light of the world” (John 8:12, 9:5).

“Before Abraham was, I am” (John 8:58).

“I am the door” (John 10:9).

“I am the good shepherd” (John 10:11).

“I am the resurrection and the life” (John 11:25).

“I am the way, the truth, and the life” (John 14:6).

“I am the true vine” (John 15:1)

“I AM the assurance of every promise. I AM; be not afraid. ‘God with us’ is the surety of our deliverance from sin, the assurance of our power to obey the law of heaven.” {The Desire of Ages, p. 24}.
